AECOM

AECOM works with Governments around the world supporting programs of critical national importance in the areas of defense, security and intelligence. Within these programs AECOM deploys leading edge border security monitoring and detection technologies. On all larger programs AECOM participates in technical exchanges or lesson learned programs that are designed to improve existing or future deployments both for vendor or end-user.